

TradePoint Atlantic Announcement On Recovery Efforts
Global Logistics Center Fully Operational

BALTIMORE, MD (March 27, 2024)— TradePoint Atlantic today announced that its site and global logistics center resumed full operations following efforts to assist search and recovery efforts as a result of the collapse of the Francis Scott Key Bridge. As noted, yesterday, TradePoint Atlantic remains in constant contact with officials from Baltimore City, Baltimore County, and the Moore administration. Additionally, communication with shipping companies has increased and plans to accept additional vessel traffic and related cargo are underway.

Earlier this morning TradePoint Atlantic accepted the Wolfsburg, a regularly scheduled roll-on/roll-off (Ro/Ro) vessel for Volkswagen. This was the first cargo arriving at the Port of Baltimore since the tragic accident on Tuesday.

“Yesterday’s events were tragic and will forever change the landscape of the Baltimore region. Tradepoint Atlantic is committed to being an active partner during the recovery, clean up, and rebuilding process,” said Kerry Doyle, Managing Director of Tradepoint Atlantic. "Our primary focus is providing the facilities needed to expedite channel clearing efforts so that the Port of Baltimore can resume normal commercial activities."

For more information on Tradepoint Atlantic’s site and capabilities visit www.tradepointatlantic.com.

For media inquiries please contact: media@tradepointatlantic.com

About Tradepoint Atlantic: The 3,300-acre multimodal logistics and industrial center in Baltimore, Md., offers a gateway to U.S. domestic and global markets, featuring an unmatched combination of access to deep water berths, rail, and highways. At Tradepoint Atlantic, industry is set in motion with the financial backing of Redwood Holdings, as well as the robust support of local and state government which enables the redevelopment of the former Sparrows Point steel mill site. From here, world-class companies unleash their potential, jobs are created, communities prosper, and industry is set in motion. For more information visit www.tradepointatlantic.com.

###